

ZHANG Yiwei, Program Officer, Division of Asia, Africa and International Organizations, Bureau of International Cooperation, NSFC

Yiwei is mainly responsible for communicating with partners on bilateral and multilateral programs, and supporting other activities related to the international organizations.

Prior to her work at NSFC, Yiwei has obtained the double Master's degree in Translation and Interpreting from Southeast University and Monash University. During her internship, Yiwei worked for the UNAIDS China office and assisted Strategic Information Adviser in collecting, analyzing, and disseminating information on national and provincial AIDS epidemic situation, and supporting the work of UNAIDS in collaboration with national partners. Yiwei obtained her undergraduate degree in English Language and Literature from China Pharmaceutical University in China.